

Name: _____ Class: _____

Scientific readings

Lisa decided to try three types of fertilizers on three bean sprouts. A fourth bean sprout did not receive any fertilizer. After three weeks, she recorded the height of the four plants on a graph. Read the graph and answer the following questions.

1. Which fertilizer was most effective in helping the bean plant to grow tallest ?
2. Which fertilizer was least effective in helping the bean plant to grow tall ?
3. Looking at the height of the plants, what can you say about the impact of fertilizers on plant growth ?

Peter was offered a young rabbit in January. Its initial weight was 9 g. He weighed the pet every month and recorded the data on a graph. Look at the graph and answer the questions below.

4. What was the weight of the rabbit in February?
5. Did the rabbit's weight increase or decrease ?
6. By how many grams had the rabbit's weight increased by July ?

1. D
2. C
3. They make plants to grow taller and healthier.
4. About 41 g
5. Increase
6. About 111 g ?